Applicant Terms and Conditions

I am of legal age in the State of my residency. I agree that I am an independent contractor, responsible for determining my own business activities and not an agent, employee or legal representative of Salu International, LLC., hereinafter referred to as "Company". I will not represent in any manner that I am an agent or representative of the company. I am responsible for the payment of all federal and state self employment taxes and any other tax required under federal, state, regulatory or taxing agency. I am responsible to pay all sales taxes.

- Any distributor (sometimes referred to as SBO in this agreement) who sponsors another distributor or collects a bonus on another distributor must fulfill the obligation of performing a bona fide supervisory, distributing and selling function in the sale or delivery of product(s) to the ultimate consumer and in training those sponsored. Distributors must have ongoing communication and management with his/her sales organization. Examples may include, but not limited to emails, telephone contact, accompanying individuals to company training and sharing genealogy information with those sponsored. Distributors should be able to provide evidence to the company quarterly of ongoing fulfillment of sponsor responsibilities.
- Distributor understands that he/she is not compensated for sponsoring other distributors but earns compensation solely on the sales of product to the ultimate consumer.
- Applicant is, upon acceptance, an independent contractor, called a distributor (or SBO) conducting business for his/her own account not an agent, employee or franchisee for the company. As such, Distributor in the USA must provide his/her Social Security or Federal Tax ID number for tax reporting purposes on any monies earned within the country. Distributors in all other countries must report their tax ID numbers for tax reporting purposes. All distributors should consult their attorney or tax consultant for information on all monies earned and where received. An independent contractor shall be responsible for obtaining any licenses required by law whatever state, country or county in which they reside and pay all applicable fees or taxes.
- Distributor agrees to accept sole responsibility for all self employment, all legal country/federal and state income taxes and any other income earned as a distributor. The company will file forms at the close of the calendar year. For the amount of commission, bonuses earned in their country of residence under this agreement.
- Distributor understands that the company will not be liable whatsoever for city, county, state and country/federal taxes or other fees pertaining to efforts and earnings paid to the distributor.
- Distributors SHALL NOT promote or sell other companies products at company functions or on websites where Salu International is mentioned, use the company printed documents, forms or its name and prestige or drawing power in conjunction with or support in any other activities.
- Distributor shall not sponsor or attempt to sponsor another Salu distributor into another direct sales and/or marketing company except for his/her personally sponsored Distributors. In addition, no distributor shall participate in any action that causes a distributor to be sponsored through someone else into that company.
- Distributor shall make no claims as to income potential either written or oral except those prepared by the company for illustration purposes only.
- Distributor will not make any claims of any kind pertaining to benefits of the Company's product and services except those given in official company promotional media. When presenting the company's program to others, distributor shall present the program in its entirety without omission, distortion or misrepresentation.
- Distributor shall not represent or imply directly that the company program has been approved or endorsed by any government agency. Federal and State agencies do not approve or endorse any marketing company, products or programs.
- Distributor will indemnify and hold The Company harmless from any and all claims, expenses, costs, causes of action and damages resulting from or growing out of distributor statements or actions in violation of this agreement.
- Should a distributor be terminated for any reason, Distributors sales shall be transferred to his/her first active upline Distributor.
- I understand that at least 70% of all personal purchases must be resold to customers that are not Distributors of Salu and that I will not purchase products solely for qualification for a higher position, bonuses or commissions.
- In the event that I choose to purchase Company products on my credit or banking debit card, my signature (including my electronic signature) on this contract hereby constitutes my authorization to process any order I place on these accounts and to use this signed contract as my "signature on file". I understand that any cancellation of an order placed by me shall be made within (3) three business days of the placement of a particular order or (10) ten business days for cancellation of an Auto-Ship Order, but all shipping, handling and restocking charges of 15% of total product, incurred will be paid by me.
- In the event that the product has been damaged upon delivery to SBO or preferred customer, it may be returned to Salu for a full replacement accompanied by a return form that has been completed and placed inside the box and sent to the current corporate office.
- In the event that the product is received and the "unopened" product is returned, the SBO will need to fill out a return form that will be placed inside the shipping box and return to Salu within 30 days. The SBO will incur all fees for the shipping from and to Salu International and will also incur a 15% restocking fee on the product order total.
- A terminated Distributor will be eligible to reapply and may choose a new sponsor after 6 months. A terminated Distributor that reenters the program may not sponsor any of his/her original downline organization.

- Distributor understands that he/she will be paid bonuses monthly and commissions weekly.
- Distributors without a sales tax ID number authorize the Company to remit to the proper agencies the sale/use tax generated as a result of Distributors product sales.

- As an independent contractor, the distributor is aware of the quality of products offered by the Company and other costs and contractual obligations that occur when he/she purchases products from the Company. Distributor understands that he/she maintains greater responsibility when ordering on a credit card account, as an informed distributor than as a customer. Distributor therefore waives the right of refund on any order placed on his/her credit card account(s) except through the Company. Any order returns or exchanges shall be done through the Company and not the Credit Card Company.
- In the event that any check (monies) by any method is returned unpaid, I authorize Salu International to Debit my account for the face amount plus $25.00 processing fee. If said amount remains unpaid, I understand that I could lose my current status and that until my account is bought current, I could forfeit certain rights and privileges, including commissions.
- Distributor understands that USA residents in the states of Maine, South Dakota and Michigan, Indiana, Iowa, West Virginia are limited to a total of $495 in sales aids and wholesale products purchased from the Company during the first 6 months.
